SHENANDOAH FISHERMEN.

They Must Stop Fishing in Roaring Greek.

There are a great number of fishermen rom Shamokin and all the way up to Shannadowh, who go over to Rearing Creak and do not pay any attention to the law projecting the stream. The law states that no one shall be allowed to fish for three years. Shamokin parties having bean visiting Roaring Creek two or three times each week during the season, claiming there is no law forbidding fishing therein. One of the gentlemen interested in protecting the stroom says: "This is a big bluff upon their part, for I they know anything at all about the lish and game laws, they know that they have no business to lish in Roaring Creek, and i

"We have been at considerable expense to scurs and put into this stream a lot of brook trout iry, and we desire to see the law obeyed in regard to protecting them. To ald in this we will pay all costs in any mit brought to prosecute parties for fishing in this stream where the parties are not convicted; we will pay a bonus of $5 to any person who will make information before my Justice of the Peace of such illegal fishing, providing such information is suffi-cient to convict. (Provided, also, that said illegal dehermen are not residents of Roarng creek township, as we have no desire to mix into any neighborhood quarrels.) In addition to the above we offer an extra premium of a box of good cigara for the arrest and conviction, for any violation of this law, of any Shenandoan fisherman who, it seems, are the most rapacious of all coming from neighboring towns."

The above is from the Shamokin Herald.

THIRD ANNIVERSARY.

The Members of J. W. Stokes Lodge Celebrata.

Last evening the members of J. W. Stoker Lodge, No. order of Odd Fellows, celebrated the third anniversary of their organization. The attendance was large and the even-
